Tie-Breaker Rules:

Regular Season Order of Finish:

- 1) Most Games Won
- 2) Most Points between tied teams (two or more teams may be involved)
- 3) Best plus-minus (goals for vs. goals against) from games between the two or more tied teams.
- 4) Least Penalty Minutes received during the season.
- 5) Coin Flip

Playoff Round Robin – Mostly Same As Regular Season:

- 1) Most Games Won
- 2) Most Points between tied teams (two or more teams may be involved)
- 3) Best plus-minus (goals for vs. goals against) from games between the two or more tied teams.
- 4) Least Penalty Minutes received in all round robin games.
- 5) Order of Finish in Regular Season.

Regarding the semi-final games, the existing rule says:

“Should the teams remain tied at the end of the regular play the teams will play one 15 minute non-stop time period of sudden death hockey. Should the teams remain tied, each team will rotate through their line-up one player at a time taking penalty shots until after each round of shots, one team has scored and the other hasn’t.”

Regarding the final game, the existing rule says:

[If game tied at the end] “...a 5-minute rest will be allowed and will be followed by continuous 15-minute non-stop sudden death periods as long as time allows. If the game is still tied after the overtime, then the teams will play shoot out. The rules for shoot out are the same as stated [for the semi-final game, above].
